WE THE CLASS OF "1984" DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO YOU NORMAN LAVALLEE

Norman, you have worked at King Philip for 16 years. You have graced us all with your great sense of humor, dedication, and caring, not only for the school, but for the student body and faculty as well. Your contagious, sincere, good nature has spread its warm influence over all who know you.

Every day the students walk into the building and see that the debris that was left from the day before is gone. Thanks to our hard working Norman and his efficient crew. When it is time again for plays or assemblies, the stage is always clean and set up by Norman. "Splish-Splash" the cafeteria floor gets a bath! Mop in hand, Norman is there to clean up (you guessed it) FOOD FIGHT leftovers. For this, we thank you, Norman, for helping us have pride in our school.

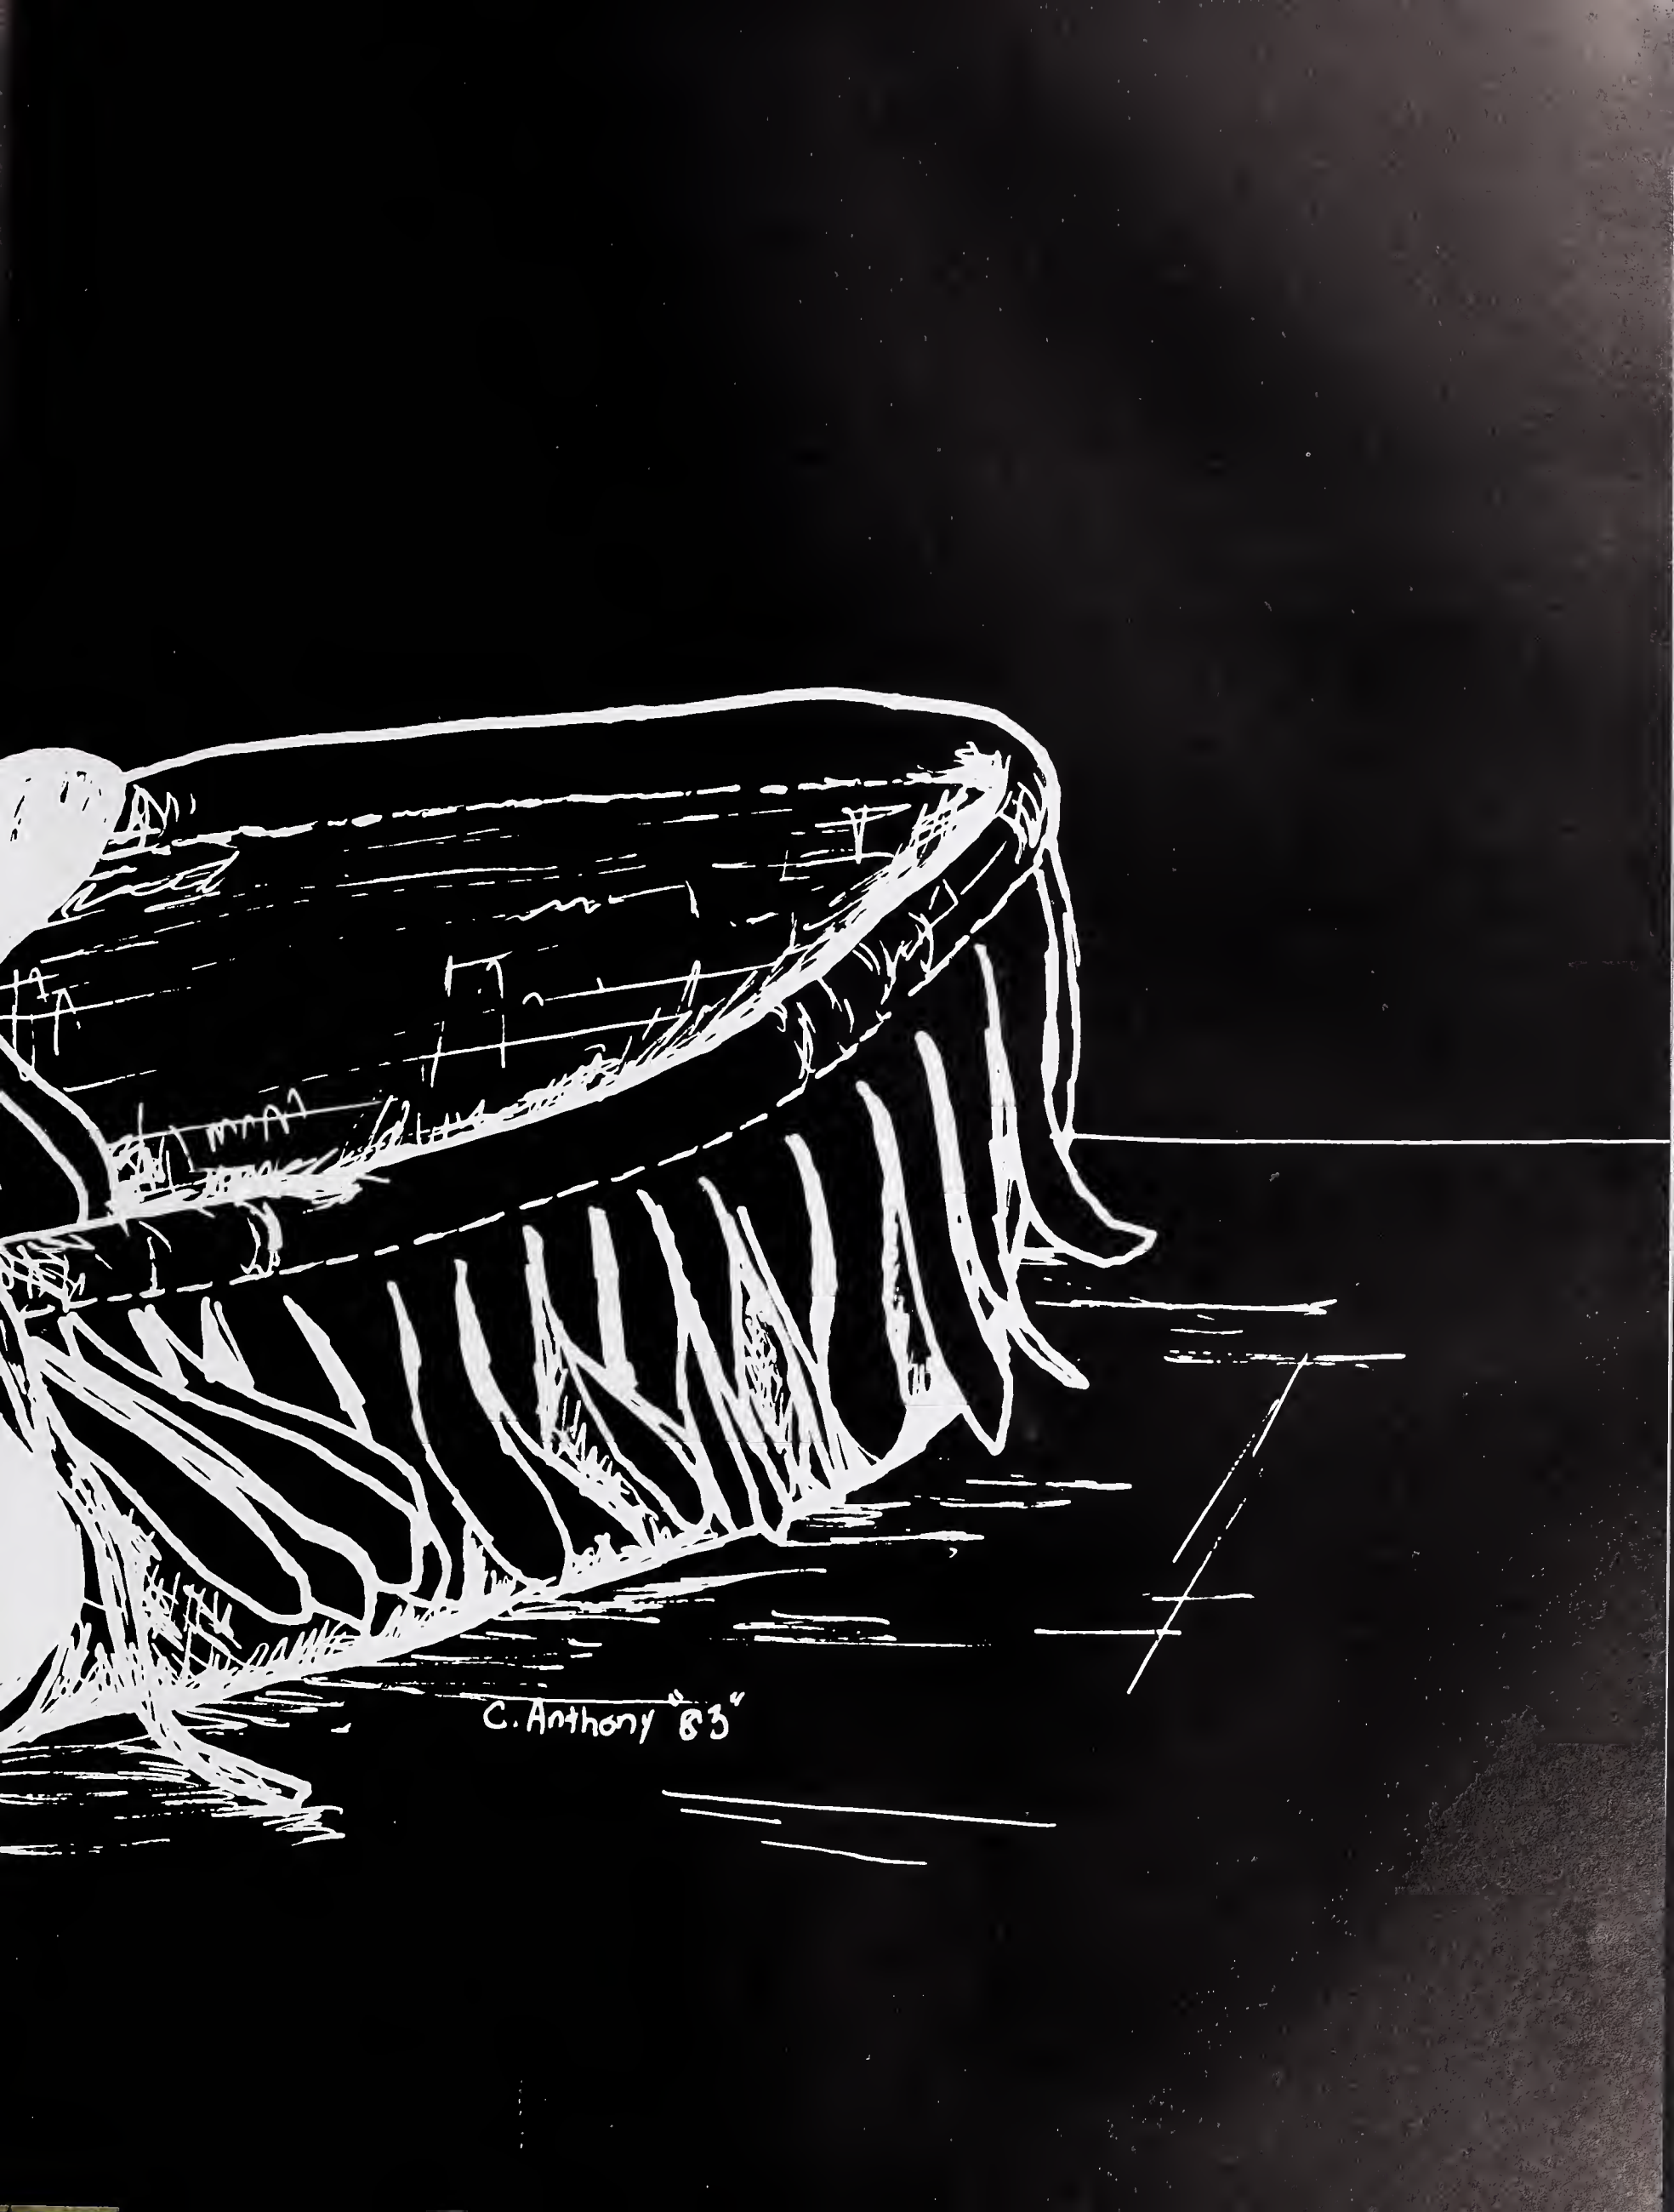

Above all, you are our friend! We trust you with our hearts, our love, and our great stories. You are always there when we need you.

Footsteps in the past . . . . . .

In September of 1980, The Class of 1984 began their odventures at King Philip Regional High School. Most of us were a little nervous, but we knew we'd moke it becouse "We're the Closs of 84!"

Our freshman yeor started off with style under the leodership of John Mallay- President, Lisa Geloron- Vice Preident, Danno Hartford- Secretory, ond Bill Wenzel- Treosurer. We were guided successfully by Miss Szczeponiak as aur Closs Advisar.

Working tagether os o closs we were involved in fundroising events. Mogozine soles, condy soles, and donces all cantributed to our growing treosury.

Showing aur Super Closs Spirit we begon working on our first Hamecoming floot at Jay Molly's. "Racket Teors as KP Cheers" was heoded by aur one and anly "Dally Roquel Monroe". Although we did not defeat Narth Attlebora with our spirit ond obility, we coptured o victory with our float. We knew we could da it tagether!

The Freshman-Saphomoe Semi Formol "The Rose", held ot the King Philip Bollraam was o greot sucess. The Freshmen were elegantly represented by Kelly McKenno ond Rito Preston.

As our Freshman year came ta an end we knew we were growing ond becaming better ond better. We had hopes and dreoms.

We began aur Saphmore yeor with some chonges in leadership. We hod Fiono Graham- President, Ed Halmes- Vice President, Donno Hartford- Secretory, and Jennifer King- Treosurer. Also Mrs. Negus joined Miss Szcepaniak os our Class Advisor.

With the use of Koren Pomfret's garage we once ogoin begon to build anather awesome Homecaming floot. Althaugh we did not obtain a victary we still kept our prlde ond spirit.

Our second Freshmon-Sophomare Semi Formol, "We've Got Tonight", wos held at The Red Snopper. It turned out to be a wonderful evening. The Sophomores were beautifully represented by Queen Lorroine Petrosion ond Court Poula Chorron ond Trocy Budd.

As Juniars we proved how owesome we reolly were! The Closs of 84 had ane yeor left to top!

Our Junior Closs Officers were Beth Poulson- President, Ed Holmes- Vice President, Donna Hortford- Secretary, ond Solly Andrews- Treasurer. Once agaln Miss Sczceponiok ond Mrs. Negus helped to moke our closs successful. We were the BEST!

Ploying the Mansfield Hornets ot Homecoming, we built onother terrific flaot. "Exterminote the hornets" wos our slogon. It wos built in Fiona Grohom's garage. Althaugh we didn't win, we were proud of the job we did as a closs.

Agoin working as a class we monoged to pull off o victory ot Closs Competition Night. Our amazing volleyball team wos victorious ogoinst every closs. with anly ane clase game ogoinst the '83 Seniors.

Roising money wos reolly eosy. As o closs we were involved in o cornotion sole, donces, condy soles, and other fundroising events.

Our Junior-Seniar Pram "Up Where We Belang", wos o night to remember. It wos held ot the Sheroton Toro in Braintree. Kristy Bazaire ond Kelly Mullin represented the Juniors in the Queen's Court. Our first prom was o greot success.

As the time passed we finolly become SENIORS!!! We were the best yet!

Leoding the class wos Fred Gillis- President, Chris Hoyden- Vice President, Donno Hortford- Secretory, ond Solly Andrews- Treasurer. Miss Sczcepaniok ond Mrs. Negus hod a lot of spirit so the Closs of '84 kept them busy with wild ond crozy ideos ond events.

Jukko Olovi Anttoni Honkoniemi, on exchonge student from Finlond, joined the Class af '84.

Our Seniar year wos immediotely started with Homecoming. Building enthusiostically ot Ann Pfishner's house, we completed our Super Senior Float. We ployed the Shoron Eagles ond proudly disployed our floot "KP Worriors are here with might to stop the Eagles in mid-flight!" The game was tied ond we lost the float competition but we still knew we were the best!!

The doy wos highlighted with Homecoming Queen Kirsten Holst ond her Caurt Danna Hartford ond Kathy Demers

At our Thanksgiving Day Faatball Gome in Fronklin, Denise Myette ond Sally Andrews represented aur class.

We all enjayed aur successful Senior Supper ond Junior-Senior Prom, which wos held ot the Sheroton Inn in Monsfield.

As we look back ot the past faur years with pride ond sotisfoctian we must also keep our eyes on the future ond the new paths we will moke in aur Footsteps in Time.

Footsteps in the future . . . . .

And now for the six o'clock news - December 13, 2003 . . . .

In our top story tonight, Cuban factor workers continue their attack on Daytona Beach. Guerilla leader Seon Slattery, known to the Cubans as "El Extroña," leads the rebellion with the cry, "EL Extraño paro dictador de America!" Defeated President Fred "the bass" Gillis hos sent armed troops to suppress the rebellion claiming, "We must moke the beach safe for Democracy. Besides, the only girls that go to the beach now wear combat boots and carry rifles." Brigadier General Beth Poulson, angered by this statement, has taken a band of followers consisting of Pennsylvania State Senator William Weir, daycare owner Laura McCrocken, New England Patriot Carl Nabels, dental hygenist Maria Arodo and Union Leader Ken Starefas, and convinced Philadelphia to secede from the union. President elect Jukka Olavi Anttoni Hankaniemi's only comment was, "Who cares Philadelphia's no good for anything anyway." Don Guido Ricardo "Godfather" Leverani objects to this claiming he gets all his best drugs there.

Back on the Daytona shoreline the only fatality reported so far hos been the death of beachcomber Rita Prestan, who accidentally blew herself up when she picked up a live grenade.

And now our own WBZ reporter, All American Boy Larry Skip Rausch is here with a live report.

Naval Officer Kyle Stockwell has the beoch surrounded with 21 destroyers and 3 torpedo submarines. A trying battle ensued when a company of Cuban soldiers swom out to one of the ships and attacked Capt. William Golding with a barroge of ashtrys and bic lighters. A daring rescue was made by Corporal, soon-to-be-Major, John Ellis when he singlehandedly and bravely fought off the company assault. Corp. Ellis suffered minor injuries but according to naval doctor Regina Pettis and R.N. Lorraine Petrosian, "He's doing just fine."

On the Morine front the "few and the proud" are taking a severe beating. Marine Commander Douglas "McArthur" Corson has led his squad of militants across the beach in a daring attempt to sove "Down ond Serena's Taco and Burger Barn" owned by Dawn Dodmund and Serena Richards. Wife of one of the marines in this "suicide squad," Kim Arnhols just comments, "I'm just glad my husband's getting a good meal."

Marine biologist Joan Edwards, who is reknown for her many years of studying morines, made this comment, "They seem in great form to me."

New advances in modern science have been mode today in Mongolia where scientific genius Chris Hoyden has just bred the world's-first checkered guinea pig in the back of his jacuzzi club. Quoted Mr. Hayden deleriously as he was being carried away, "Ha ha Mr. Ligorl I told you it could be done!"

During Mr. Hayden's stay at Juli Andrews' Home for the Mentolly Deranged his live in assistant, medical technician Kristy Bozaire, has taken over "The Business" and appointed Karen Pomfret as her personal monoger. Graphic Department manager Jennifer Andrews reports, "Business has never been better since the takeover." Reportedly severol illustrious people have been frequenting the estoblish ment.

According to Notional Enquirer reporter Kirsten Halst, multimillionaire Marc Whalpers and world renown concert pianist Paula Charron have been spotted on several occasions. Also reported as frequenters to the club ore oeronautic engineers Sean McLaughlin and Tim Slaney who said they always hove "o hell of a time," while Celtics team member Jon Crowell is "doing just fine."

Unfortunotly since we made this report the Mongolian outhorities have had to shut down the club. A comment from Sue Vaphiates, Miss Bozaire's personal secretary, "Don't worry we'll be back, you can't stop progress."

In our human interest story tonight we find "Ripley's Believe-It-Or-Not" correspondent Mary Laliberte in a Tibetian monestary where a monk, Brother Anthony Cardani, is building a life size model of the Tibetian god Bob Maduski out of 25 straws and a piece of string. Brother Tony quotes, "I've always wanted to do something constructive and this is just my way of expressing myself." Ann Pfischner, a poor orphan girl taken in by the monks at an early age, comments "Tony, he's a nice guy. He really gets into this monkey stuff. I guess he's just trying to find himself like the rest of us, maybe he should try the yellow pages."

Christian leaders Julie Holmes and Helen Steponovitch have launched a full scale crusade to Tibet to "Stop this evil brigade of satanic dealings in Third World Nations." Along with them is CYO Vice President Ken Pimental and various editions of "Modern Day Bible Translotions for Modern Day Living."

After lost months mob killing ot the Ployboy Elite Club, when mob hit men burst into the club ond killed everyone, the cose finolly goes to triol. Representing the mob is Kent "Machinegun" Belcher, Consigliore to the Eost Coost fomily. The hit men brought up on chorges for the sloying of 23 lives ore Mike "Gunner" Dumont, Jim "Reaper" McPhearson, ond Danny "The Skull" Boucher.

Among the deoths ore Rolls Royce monufocturer Bridget Blinco, tycoon Scott Andrews, Owner of the Ployboy Club Chris Cossette, Author of "The Best Ever Diet Book" Brenda Dahlbeck, environmentolists John Adams ond Denise Myette, Foshion Designer Kim Barry, yocht solesmon Will Barton, owner of Fontosy Islond Julie Rubin Montalbaun,, Whitehouse CPA Jim Schwartz, Ployboy bunny Stephanie Katz, fomous octress Kelly Mullin ond her husbond Mark Doherty, ond computer expert Peter Intreiri. Others who were unfortunotely exterminoted ore Linda Roy, Steve Simmer, Lori Rinaldi, Beth LaRochelle, Tim Masterson, Tracy Allen, Jacque King, Jen Robbins, Ken Wagner, ond Lon Hargreaves.

District Attorney Paul Conlin mode no comment on the motter . . . . . os usuol.

On the entertoinment front . . . Lost summer's blockbuster movie, "The Ewoks Rule" is up for on ocodemy oword for best hoirdressing by Maria Coletto. According to Critic Amy Dunn, "It wos well worth the $7.50 ticket price."

"The Ewoks Rule" is The tender story obout the Ewoks perverted drive to control the goloxy by killing off oll other threotening life forms. Wendy Axworthy os princess Ortego is morvelous. The speciol effects creoted by Jim Baker were extroordinorily reolistic, those killer worms looked so reol. Mark Fiorillo's directing wos olso superb.

The theme from "The Ewoks Rule" entitled "Yeoh Yeoh You're Deod So Whot" is nominoted ot the grommies for best country ond western song. The song wos directed by Philhormonic conductor Bob Haddleton, ond performed by the bond "Somebody Pleose Listen". According to DJ Mike Hozlett, from the rodio stotion WHAZ, the song is sooring up the chorts ond it's sure to be o #1 smosh.

On o further note obout the bond "Somebody Pleose Listen," leod singer David Ghioni wos rushed to the hospitol with froctured ribs when he wos ottocked on stoge by the bonds only groupie Lisa Geloran. The other members of the bond, Bruce Videto ond Kevin Nelson, hove continued to tour without Ghioni becouse "They don't wont to disoppoint the fons."

Tonight in sports . . . . Celtics teom doctor Laura Pitt wos orroigned yesterdoy on drug chorges. Apporently Miss Pitt would put ortificiol stimulents in the wheot germ of the ployers becouse they weren't performing well or working hord enough. Defending her is congressionol lowyer Leigh Panettiere, who cloims Miss Pitt is innocent becouse, "Well, everybody does it." Angry cries of "Stone herl" ond "Somebody plug in the choirl" hove been echoing oll over Boston. Leoding the vigilonte coup is Barbara Paulson, prominent owner of Poulson's Hordwore. Prosecuting ottorny Karen Brooks soys she is going to moke sure "Louro Pitt gets whot she deservesl"

Also in sports, the Boston Bruins won the finol gome in the Stonley Cup Division with o score of 0 to 1 when Bruin Jay Molloy shot post Flyer goolie Jim Cleaves. Boston fons tore down the house. Wife to the U.S. Ambossodor from Fronce, Tammy Padula ond seoson ticket holder Barbara Pappas creoted quite o stir when they jumped the boords onto the ice ond hugged ond kissed every member of the Bruins teom.

Other hoppy Bostonions were eost coost bookie Mike Morrisette, hockey uniform designer Jen King who commented, "Gee, I hope everyone noticed the stunning pink ond blue uniforms I creoted." Boston cooch Jeff Plympton wos olso pleosed.

Its been o successful seoson for Boston Sports.

Coming up on News ot Eleven we'll hove these stories . . . . .

Locol womon Kris Gallager wos found murdered on o roodside by mute pig formers.

Electricion Ed Holmes finds new energy sources in recycled rovioli ond posto squores.

Also we'll hove on updote on the Cubon beoch crisis.

This hos been the six o'clock news . . . . . Goodnight ond hove o pleosent tommorrow.

The carpentry program gives students general and specific information concerning the field of carpentry. Students in the first two years of the course learn fundamental skills such as millwork and framework. As juniors and seniors, they put their knowledge to work in building the King Philip house.

The students involved in the carpentry program are: Steven Alix, Karl Backlund, Jahn Curtin, Daniel Driscoll, Richard Duquette, Michael Lynch, Jahn Olson, Jahn Siman, and Alan Wisniewski. Also, David Bishap, Kenneth Boath, Jahn Cronin, James Ferris, James Flynn, Charles Fruci, Bruce LeBlanc, Jay Newman, Brian Praut, Brian Buja, Elizabeth Lynch, Darren Meau, Anthony Megna, Steven Pelaquin, Elaine Swensan, and Danald Berry are participants.

The Distributive Education program provides students with training in marketing, retailing, and management. Students practice their skills first in the school store and restaurant and later in local businesses. They also participate in the Distributive Education Clubs of America, a national youth organization designed to promote excellence in business skills.

The drafting course is geared to give students a fundamental knowledge of drafting in the technical world. After students have mastered basic skills, they may select an area of specialization. Often students apply their drafting skills to other fields with which they may be oriented.

The electrical program prepares students for many options in the electrical field. Students gain practical training by wiring the house the carpentry students build. They may put this training to use as a residential or a commercial electrician.

The food service program is designed to teach the basic steps needed for all food service operations. Students practice cooking and baking skills in a work environment. They may go on to apply these skills in restaurants, hotels, or bakeries.

The 2000 square foot graphic arts laboratory provides students with an ideal setting to pursue studies in the many aspects of offset lithography. While students will be exposed to a multitude of areas in this field, they will have the opportunity to specialize in layout and design, copy preparation, typesetting, photography, stripping, offset printing, platemaking, and bindery operations. The use of modern techniques, processes, tools, and materials will provide the students with saleable skills of a solid foundation to pursue post secondary education.

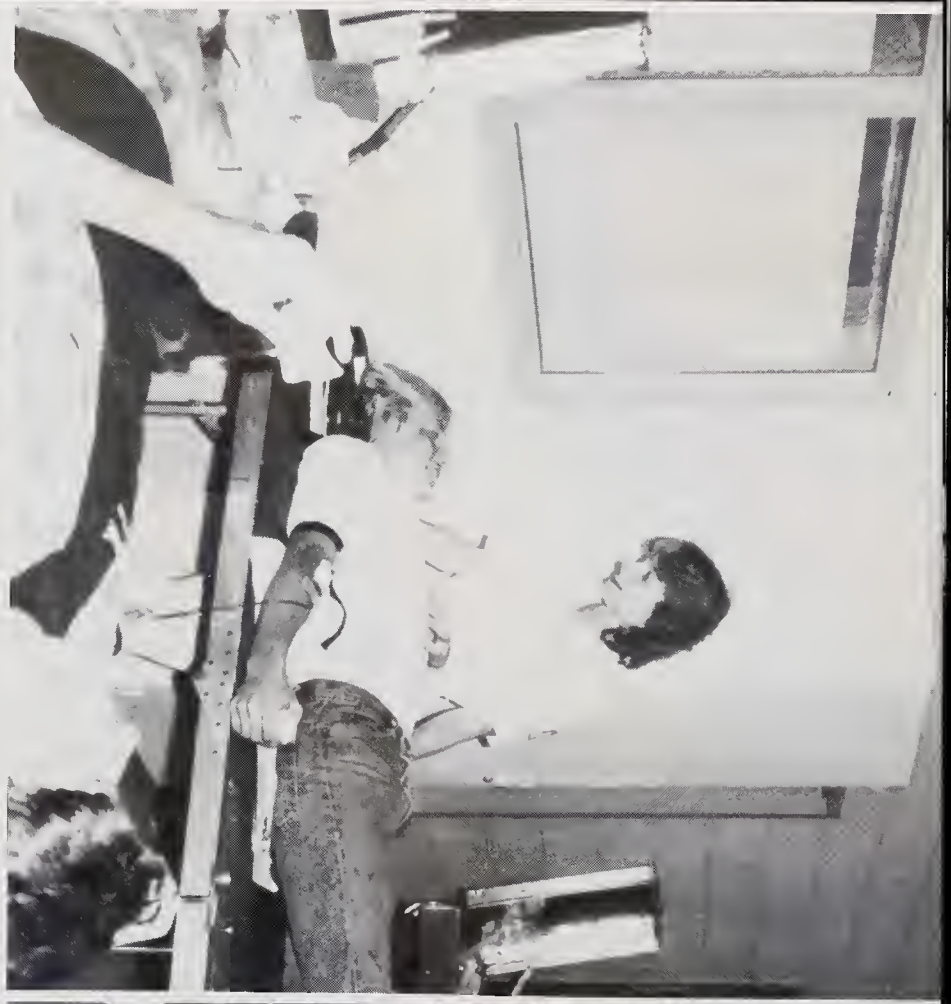

The Graphic Arts Industry is one of the fastest growing industries in our ever increasing technological world, having experienced phenominal growth until it now represents over 8 percent of the gross national product and enjoys an annual gross of over 25 billions of dollars.

The Health program provides the opportunity for students to explore the varied careers in the Health Care field. As juniors and seniors, the students practice patient care skills learned in the classroom-labratory in local Health Care facilities.

Students involved in the Health program are: Lisa Geloran, Wendy Kennerson, Tracey Mills, Elizabeth Parkinson, Darleen Swanson, Denise Woodworth, Janice Zimmer, Robin Andrews, Ann Gatie, Melissa Hayes, AnnMarie Higgins, Kirsten Holst, Heidi Brier, and Kimberly Baron.

machine shop

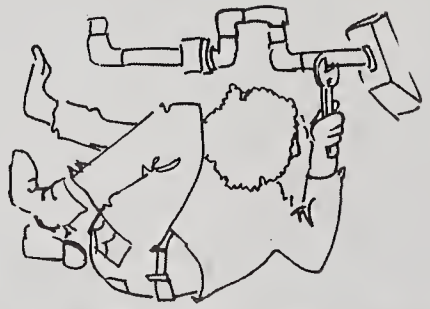

The machinist's trade was born in the early days of the Industrial Revolution and survives as a vital component of the high technology industries of 1983.

Students in the King Philip machine shop program study the skills that will qualify them for entry level jobs in the machine tool industry. As they progress in their trade, many will find themselves involved in such exotic specialities as robotics and bio-medical engineering.

The art and science of plumbing orginated from man's struggle against disease. He drank from springs and streams and made no provision for the disposal of waste. Consequently, diseased killed many of his tribe. Thus from the very beginning, the public health has been at the foundation of efforts to assure a pure water supply and sanitary disposal of water born waste.

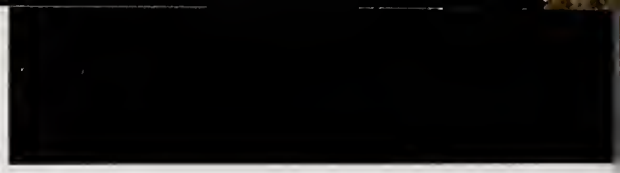

With teamwark, skill, and ability, the last senior plumbing class has been doing the many and sametimes camplicated jabs in and araund the schaal with care, quality and warkmanship under the guidence of a master plumber . . . Thus saving the schaal department untald amaunts of maney and grievance.

Students invalved in plumbing are; Mike Nartan, Cliffard Pladt, James Lee and Danny Gillis.

technical drawing

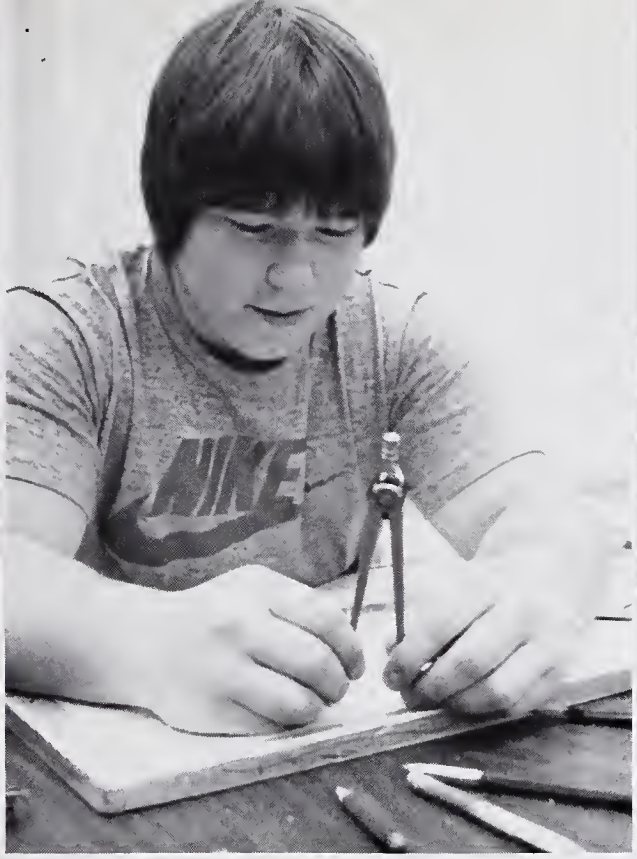

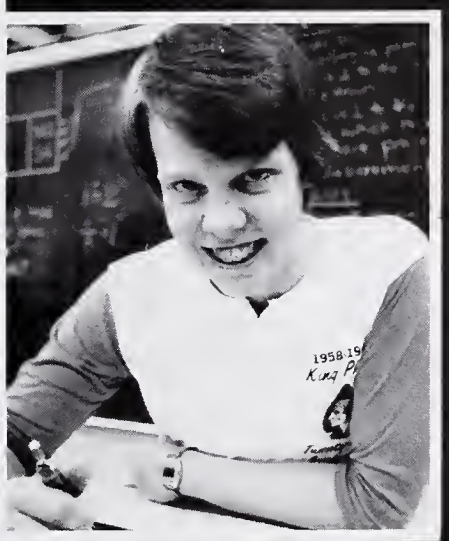

Technical drawing is the principal means of expressing ideas in a technical world. It is a universal graphic language that has its own alphabet.

Drawing is the oldest form of written expression. A word is an abstract symbol representing an object or an idea, but a drawing completely describes that object or idea. No object is so complicated that it cannot be drawn. In fact, if it cannot be drawn first, it cannot be built.

In technical drawing, students learn to communicate graphically using this universally understood graphic language- the language of industry.

KING PHILIP

PLAIN

In December of last year, the King Philip Drama Club presented Frances Stewart's Terror in the Suburbs under the directian af Mr. Jim D'Attilia. There were twa perfarmances which were reasanably well-attended and well-appreciated.

Strong performances gave continuity to the humourous and somewhat complicated plot. Most impressive was the solid teamwork shown in the skillful coordination of entrances and exits and in the smooth disposal of dead bodies by means of the ingenious set. An enjoyable show!

ANNE (FIUMARA) BOULANGER TELLS ABOUT THE FIRST YEARBOOK. (BY ANNE LACEY)

Before 1957 there wasn't any King Philip Regional High School. The students from Wrentham, Norfolk and Plainville went to different high schools in their own towns. 1957 was the first year students from all three towns would go to school together. Anne (Fiumara) Boulanger, a member of the class of '58 tells the story of how the yearbook got it's name and the way it was run back then.

Anne Fiumara's senior year at King Philip was quite an adjustment from a small Wrentham High School. The students started school late in October, because the school wasn't finished in September.

During their Junior year, students from the three towns met weekly to choose the school colors, school rings, and selected a yearbook committee. The as staff worked hard and quick selling ads. The Seniors had to work together compiling a sufficient yearbook in a short time. With a lot of cooperation, they managed to present their first yearbook. The yearbook was financed from the class treasuries of the three towns, that they had saved over the past four years, and from ad sales. In additional to the usual faculty, seniors, and activities, there were three separate histories, from each town came a prophesy, will, baby pictures, etc. . . . . The book was dedicated to the "Parents of All Pupils . . . . . ."

After the yearbook was completed, there was still the problem of not having a name for the book. So, a "yearbook name" suggestion box was placed in the lobby of the school. Anne thought about a name for a few days. She believed an Indian name was appropriate—and that year a car manufacturer had a "Chieftain" model. She used that name for her suggestion. Her suggestion was accepted by the yearbook staff. The "Chieftain" was named in the Fall of 1957 and the name has continued ever since.

After graduating from King Philip in 1958, Anne (Fiumara) Boulanger used her business courses in an office job. She was married in 1959 and how has a son, 21, and a daughter, 14, She still uses her office skills in helping her husband run his business.

We'll, it's about time! We finished! It seems impossible that all that work could be fun. But it was.

I'd like to take the time to thank the entire yearbook staff and new advisors. Mrs. Tower and Mrs. Cronin were excellent advisors even though it was their first year.

Looking back at our high school years could tend to be upsetting, but to look back at the 1984 Chieftain will be different. You can laugh, cry, and remember all the times you had with friends.

My special thanks go out to my co-editor K. B. and again Mrs. Tower and Mrs. Cronin.

Good Luck to he class of '84!

Sincerely,

Stephanie Katz
Co-Editor
